Sports Law

Gornitzky is one of the leading law firms in Israel in the field of sports law, with a dedicated team with over 35 years of experience in legal and business support of athletes, sports associations, sports unions, sports organizations, coaches, officials, agents and various commercial companies operating in the world of sports.

Our firm has a long list of prominent clients in the field of sports in Israel and abroad, including senior athletes and coaches, teams that belong to the super leagues in football and basketball, the largest sports organization in Israel, team owners, financiers, sponsors and more.

Our firm provides legal and business support to our clients, which combines extensive knowledge and experience from the world of sports law along with a broad and global vision in order to offer our clients with the winning course they seek during their professional and business path.

Our firm has extensive experience in complex legal proceedings in all courts, including both local and international internal tribunals, such as FIBA, FIFA, CAS and more.

In addition, the staff of the Sports Department has extensive and unique experience in treating athletes' injuries, in insurance law, National Insurance, and bodily injuries in the field of sports.

Gornitzky's multidisciplinary approach and extensive experience both in representing all of the entities operating in the field of sports, and our extensive experience in other related areas of law, including litigation, commercial and corporate law, administrative law, taxes, labor law, intellectual property, antitrust and more, allow us to provide our clients with comprehensive and successful legal representation even in these complex and sensitive proceedings.
