Commercial Litigation involving Family Law

Gornitzky & Co. is one of Israel's top commercial litigation law firms in cases involving Family Law. Our unique expertise in the area of Trusts, Estates & Wealth Management as well as in the area of Litigation & Dispute Resolution, allows our legal team to represent clients in disputes concerning inheritance, estates, trusts and other commercial disputes between family members, which also involve companies.

Our legal team has a vast understanding of our clients' needs. We have great experience in the representation of private clients and with the sensitive and delicate nature of inter-familial, interpersonal relationships and family companies, especially when the family members have distinct needs and motives, including with respect to their holdings in companies that have significant activity in the Israeli and global market.

Our team provides its clients with advice on a wide range of complex issues, including:

- Inheritance disputes with respect to estates that are estimated in millions of NIS;
- Representation of companies in Family Court, when they are a party in a divorce proceeding or a family dispute;
- Representation of individuals in Family Court during separation proceedings between spouses or families which require a unique understanding of commercial litigation law.
