

March 19, 2020

COVID-19 as a Potential Force Majeure Event under Israeli Contract Law

Client Updates

The outbreak of the Corona pandemic and the resulting precautionary measures implemented by the Government of The State of Israel and by other governments globally create significant challenges for parties to contracts that are subject to Israeli law.

Partner Eyal Raz in a client update reviewing the general principles of Israeli contract law which apply to events of force majeure.

Key Contacts

Dr. Eyal Raz
Partner