

July 13, 2020

Another step forward for the financial services sector in Israel – promoting sharing of financial information to increase competition

Client Updates

A new Financial Information Services Bill that was recently published by the Israel Securities Authority aims to remove barriers in the Israeli financial sector in connection with financial information services.

Partner Elite Elkon, together with associate Netanel Kahane in a client update reviewing the new bill.

Key Contacts

Elite Elkon
Partner

Netanel Kahane
Partner