Our firm represented Allergan Aesthetics, an AbbVie Inc. (NYSE: ABBV) company, in the acquisition Luminera Derm Ltd.'s innovative dermal filler business.

News

Our firm, together with Covington & Burling LLP, represented Allergan Aesthetics, an AbbVie Inc. (NYSE: ABBV) company, in the acquisition of assets of Luminera Derm Ltd., including Luminera's innovative dermal filler portfolio and R&D pipeline.

Luminera's key value driver for the future is HARmonyCa, an innovative dermal filler intended for facial soft tissue augmentation comprised of a combination of cross-linked hyaluronic acid (HA) with embedded calcium hydroxyapatite (CaHA) microspheres. The combination of HA and CaHA in a single product is highly differentiated in the dermal filler category. The Luminera dermal filler portfolio also includes a line of HA dermal fillers, as well CaHA based fillers commercialized across several markets. Brands include Crystalys, Hydralix and Hydryal.
