

December 21, 2021

Our firm represented Leumi Partners in its first investment in the restaurant industry

News

Our firm represented Leumi Partners, the investment banking arm of Bank Leumi, in its first investment in the restaurant industry – an investment of NIS 60 million in the “Nono Mimi” Italian chain restaurants and bakeries. Alongside this transaction and as part thereof, “Nono Mimi” are acquiring “Giraffe”, the Asian chain restaurants, to become one of the largest restaurant chains in Israel.

Leumi Partners were represented by partners Elite Elkon and Alon Peled, together with associates Rafael Shafransky and Rebecca Genis.

Assisted with tax aspects: associates Nir Moses, Yarin Yom Tov and Hadas Arzi.

Assisted with labor law aspects: associate Keren Ovadia.

Assisted with real-estate aspects: partner Shiri Shani and associate Yael Ben Tov Mizrahi.

Assisted in due diligence: associate Geffen Nissim.

Key Contacts

Elite Elkon
Partner

Alon Peled
Partner

Rafael Shafransky
Senior Associate

Rebecca Genis Shepetovsky
Senior Associate

Nir Moses
Partner

Yarin Yom Tov
Associate

Hadas Arzi
Associate

Keren Ovadia
Senior Associate

Yael Ben Tov Mizrahi
Associate

Geffen Nissim
Associate