News

Nuna Lerner appointed as the Chairperson of the Arbitration Committee of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) in Israel. The appointment was announced during a celebratory event held during the Paris Arbitration Week on behalf of the International Arbitration Forum in Israel, which was established by Nuna two years ago with colleagues from leading law firms. During the event, attended by dozens of foreign attorneys, Nuna, and members of the forum, discussed recent developments in the arbitration market in Israel, including the enactment of the International Arbitration Law and the establishment of the local committee of the International Chamber of Commerce.
