The International Arbitration team has been listed in the GAR 100 list.

News

The international arbitration team has been listed in the GAR 100 list, a global ranking that recognizes leading arbitration practices around the world. Gornitzky is the first Israeli firm to be included in the prestigious ranking. In order to be included in the list, the practice is evaluated based on its "open books" and the ranker examines the nature of the cases, legal issues, clients, volume of work, value of assets involved, the results of the proceedings, and the public profile of the legal team.
