GNY GORNITZKY

June 17, 2024

Keeping the beaches clean!

News

In honor of the World Environment Day marked last week, members of the high-tech and international department participated in a volunteering activity led by "EcoOcean", cleaning Hatzuk Beach in Tel Aviv. The members of the department learned about the importance of the sea to humans and to those who live on earth and the environmental challenges we face, in addition they helped collecting waste that harms the environment and animals.