Ronit Rozenstein-Barel delivers Lecture at the 2024 Energy and Business Conference

News

This week, Attorney Ronit Rozenstein-Barel, a partner at our firm, participated in the 2024 Energy and Business Conference. Ronit delivered a lecture and joined a panel discussing key topics in Israel's electricity market, including electricity trading, competition in supply for commercial and residential consumers, and the role of regulation in shaping the market. The conference was attended by senior professionals from the energy, infrastructure, and industrial sectors, including representatives from leading companies, government officials, and experts from various fields, who gathered to discuss the challenges and opportunities shaping the future of Israel's energy market.
