Gornitzky represents Vitania in a transaction to receive credit in the amount of NIS 138 million.

News

Gornitzky represented A.S. Ori Investments and Property (2000) Ltd. (subsidiary of the Vitania Company) in a transaction to receive credit in the amount of approximately NIS 138 million, from the First International Bank of Israel Ltd.

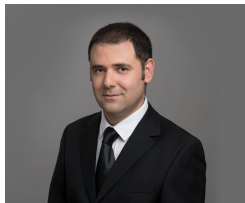

This amount is meant to serve as a construction loan for the funding of a complex construction project, which will extend over an office area of about 20,000 sq. m. in Ramat Ha'Chayal. The complex will include commercial areas, a parking lot and underground storage facilities.

The Vitania Company was represented by Eyal Marom (Partner) and Itay Itzkovich (Partner)
