

June 20, 2016

Gornitzky represents Benefit (a part of the Phoenix group) in a successful dismissal of a class action suit

News

Gornitzky represented Benefit (a part of the Phoenix group) in a successful dismissal of a labour law class action suit with respect to allegations regarding negligent advice given by Benefit to retired employees of Discount Bank.

The court dismissed the claim against Benefit, giving a summary judgment accepting all of Benefit's claims regarding, inter alia, the lack of subject matter jurisdiction, the prima-facie evidence that there was no negligent advise, as well as the argument that the claim was barred under the statute of limitations.

Benefit was represented by Noam Ronen (Partner) and Nimrod Saville

Key Contacts

Noam Ronen
Partner