Gornitzky represented the Israel Hotel Association before the Antitrust Authority in a request for an exemption to joint procurement agreements.

Within the framework of the agreements, the Hotel Association shall conduct negotiations with vendors on behalf of members of the Association for the purchase of various products, including: textile, detergents, kitchenware, furniture, etc. The exemption granted by the Antitrust Authority is contingent upon the fact that any hotel will be permitted to join the agreement, even if it is not a member of the Association (subject to payment), and provided that the three large hotel chains - Fattal, Isrotel and Dan - are not party to the agreement.

The Hotel Association was represented by Adv. Avner Finkelshtein (Partner) and Noa Schweitzer Amar (Associate).
