Gornitzky represented May A.B. Nadlan Ltd. and additional companies from Migdal Group in legal proceedings against the Israel Electric Corporation (IEC), before the Central District Court, in a motion to grant provisional relief, along with a financial claim worth millions of NIS.

Within the framework of the proceedings, the Court was asked to order the IEC to connect electricity to an office building, owned by the plaintiffs, and to issue a mandatory injunction against the IEC, obligating it to compensate the plaintiffs for financial damage due to the non-connection of electricity to the building and the IEC's defaults.

The companies were represented by Orly Tenennbaum (Partner) and Nimrod Saville (Associate).
