

November 26, 2017

The Link between Cyber-Security and M&A Transactions

Publications

In an article published in Calcalist, Adv. Sagit Amit-Evan, specializing in international M&A and capital markets, explains the connection between the heightened focus on cyber risks and M&A transactions, reviewing, among others, the intensifying due diligence examinations, potential adjustments to enterprise valuation and changes in risk allocation among the parties.