Avner Finkelshtein participates in an antitrust panel

News

Partner Avner Finkelshtein participated in a panel group discussion on antitrust and competition matters.

The topics discussed included excessive legislation, the growth in manpower at the Israel Antitrust Authority and the Law for Enhancement of Competition in the Israeli Food Sector as an example of competitive activism. Avner's advice to the IAA, "My advice to the IAA is to dare to listen to the private sector...if they would listen they could avoid mistakes".
