

December 10, 2013

Gornitzky represents investors in purchase of Carmel Winery

News

Gornitzky represented an international consortium of investors in the acquisition of a controlling stake in Carmel Winery. The winery, valued at NIS 130 million, is Israel's oldest and largest commercial winery, founded in 1882 by Baron Edmond de Rothschild.

The purchasing consortium was organized by Kedma Capital, a private equity fund, and is comprised of both Israeli and foreign investors, including the Jesselson family.

The investors were represented by Chaim Friedland (Partner), Yisrael Spero (Partner), Avner Finkelshtein and Yoav Meer.

Key Contacts

Chaim Friedland
Partner

Avner Finkelshtein
Partner