Gornitzky opens its doors this summer to over 50 children.

News

Gornitzky & Co. was featured in the Globes newspaper as one of the few workplaces in Israel that opens its doors and provides day-camp for over 50 children of employees at the firm. The day-camp includes a full day of activities, as well as an end-of-summer pool party at the home of Moriel Matalon (Managing Partner).

As to the question of whether the presence of the children at work has an adverse effect on productivity, Mr. Matalon says, "On the contrary. The camp is in the firm's office building, but in a separate area. Not only are the parents at ease knowing that their children are in good and professional hands throughout the summer, but they are now closer than ever and productivity actually rises."
