Gornitzky represents Partner Communications in the successful dismissal of a derivative suit petition.

News

Gornitzky represented Partner Communications (commercially branded as "Orange") in the successful dismissal of a derivative suit petition filed against the company's directors, which challenged the distribution of dividends by Partner and loans obtained during the same period. The claim made by Gornitzky & Co., that the petition for the approval of the derivative suit was based upon economic and legal errors and should therefore be dismissed, was accepted by Judge Khaled Kabub of the Tel Aviv District Court.

Partner Communications (Orange) was represented by Mr. Pinhas Rubin (Firm Chairman), Mr. Lior Porat (Partner) and Ms. Sagit Ohana-Livne (Partner).
