

June 11, 2019

Gornitzky represented InsuResilience Investment Fund in its investment in AgriTask Ltd.

News

Gornitzky represented "InsuResilience Investment Fund," an investment fund that was set up on behalf of the German government by KFW Development Bank in an investment in the amount of USD 6 million in the Israeli company, AgriTask Ltd.

AgriTask is a start-up company that is developing and marketing a platform and tools for decision-making in the agricultural industry, based on data from various sources. This investment is the Fund's first investment in Israel.

InsuResilience Investment Fund was represented by Shlomo Landress, Co-head of the Technology practice together with the associates Roy Eilon and Yoel Lavie.

With respect to labor law aspects InsuResilience Investment Fund was represented by Sharon Reingwirtz.

Key Contacts

Shlomo Landress
Head of Technology