Gornitzky represented Rapyd in its Series C financing round of USD 105 million.

News

Gornitzky represented Rapyd, a worldwide Fintech-as-a-Service provider, in its Series C financing round of USD 105 million. The investment round was led by Oak HC/FT with participation by leading international venture capital and private equity funds.

Rapyd was represented by Shlomo Landress (co-head of our Technology practice) alongside associates Dan Fisher and Yoel Lavie.

Partner Gil Grady and associate Danielle Skald provided advice on tax aspects of the transaction.
